

PRESS RELEASE

Karachi, April 23: KARACHI-Administrator Karachi, Sindh government's Spokesman and CM Advisor on Law Barrister Murtaza Wahab on Saturday said that the conspiracy of secret letter was hatched in Bani Gala.

"Imran Khan and his followers should be asked where are those crores of jobs. Where has the trillion trees project gone. Three and a half years of incompetence have pushed the country backwards. Three and a half years of Pakistan were wasted," the Administrator expressed these views while addressing the ground breaking ceremony of Sports Complex at Star Ground, Sherpao Colony, Malir.

On this occasion, he also laid the foundation stone for the construction of monuments and adjoining roads at Benazir Bhutto Park and Hussaini Chowk. These projects will be completed at a cost of Rs. 2.5 billion.

Provincial Minister Sajid Jakhio, Member National Assembly Agha Rafiullah, Member Provincial Assembly Muhammad Alam Jamoat, Project Director Neighborhood Scheme Nazir Memon also addressed on the occasion.

PPP District Malir District Administrator Riaz Khatri, Deputy Commissioner Malir Irfan Salam, Municipal Commissioner Malir and other government officials were also present.

Administrator Karachi said that three stadiums and a modern sports complex would be constructed in the 20-acre Star Ground and roads around the sports complex would also be constructed.

He said that Benazir Bhutto Park is also being constructed to provide recreational facilities to the people of the area, which will provide play area for children, separate area for women, jogging track, walking track and other facilities.

He said that a monument would be set up at Hussaini Chowk which would be the hallmark of Sherpao Colony. "Positive change is visible and playgrounds and open spaces are being preserved," he added.

The Administrator Karachi said that Chief Minister Sindh had visited the area a few months back and the leadership here had asked him to save the land. Today we laid the foundation stone of sports complex here and for that I pay tribute to Sindh Chief Minister Syed Murad Ali Shah and Local Government Minister Nasir Hussain Shah.

Barrister Murtaza Wahab said that the people of the backward areas should also get the same facilities as the people of the developed areas.

"The demand made by the area people from Bilawal Bhutto Zardari is being fulfilled one by one," he said and added that development work is underway on Mehran Highway.

He said that driving license office is set up in Malir so that the people here do not have to go far to get driving license. This is the area of laborers and I will fight the case of these laborers myself. He said that all the three projects would be completed by December 31 this year.

Responding to a question on the occasion, the Administrator Karachi said that some people have tried to disrupt the ongoing development work in Mir Karam Ali Talpur Road Saddar but this work will be completed immediately after Eid.

Barrister Murtaza Wahab said that there has been political instability in the country due to which economic stability has not come

"If serious political parties work together then political stability will come in the coming days then the economy of the country will develop," said the Administrator.
