

PRESS RELEASE

Karachi, March 23: Karachi-Administrator Karachi, Sindh governments Spokesman Barrister Murtaza Wahab on Wednesday said that Pakistan Day is of historical significance and in fact this day is to renew our commitment with our beloved country.

"Everyone has to contribute for the protection, service, development and prosperity of our homeland. The future of Pakistan is bright because this country was founded on ideology," the Administrator expressed these views on the occasion of Pakistan Day while laying floral wreath on Mazar-e-Quaid on behalf of the people of Karachi.

Municipal Commissioner Syed Afzal Zaidi, department heads of KMC were also present on the occasion. The Administrator Karachi while writing his impressions in the guest book, wrote that on this day and every day to come, I would like to thank all the workers of Quaid-e-Azam and Tehreek-e-Pakistan for their sacrifices and efforts.

Talking to media persons, Administrator Karachi Barrister Murtaza Wahab said that if Quaid-e-Azam's Pakistan, democratic Pakistan, constitutional Pakistan and Pakistan's economy is to be saved, it is necessary to get rid of Imran Khan's government.

"We all need to come together to address the damage that the PTI has done to this country and nation in three and a half years. Serious political parties are formulating their strategies and are in the process of negotiating with all political parties," he added.

In response to a question, the Administrator Karachi said that MQM is a political party and have members of National and Provincial Assemblies.

We respect the mandate of all political parties including MQM, he said and added that the PPP and its leaders are ready to make any sacrifice for the sake of the city, the country and democracy.

"The MQM wants implementation of Article 140-A of the Constitution. If we were against it, we would have appealed to the Supreme Court to reconsider the decision in but we did not do that. It means that PPP wants a strong, balanced local government system," said Barrister Murtaza Wahab.

Administrator Karachi said that one of the major reasons for the increase in traffic accidents is non-compliance with the law.

"There are all kinds of laws, but they are not enforced, which encourages people and they break the law," he added.

End....

KMC News and photos are also sent via e-mail. Please check your inbox